

Summary of CECI's Strategic Framework 2020-2025

Centre for Studies and International Cooperation

INNOVATE MOBILISE TRANSFORM

MISSION

Combat poverty, exclusion and inequality.

VISION

A world without poverty that is egalitarian, inclusive and celebrates diversity. A CECI international network that mobilises key agents of change around the world and advances sustainable solutions to reduce poverty, to strengthen equality and inclusion.

VALUES

Cooperation, respect, equity, commitment, integrity

MEANS

International volunteer cooperation and project implementation for development results, humanitarian aid through a sustainable approach, practitioner based research studies, strategic partnerships (civil society, academia, private sector, foundations).

ACTIONS

Promote equality and inclusion; draw on local solutions for sustainable development through the implementation of programs and projects in Africa, Asia and the Americas; empower marginalized communities to take charge of their lives and exercise their rights, access and control of basic services, economic and social resources; co-create localized and adapted humanitarian responses.

3 PROGRAM PRIORITIES

- Women's economic empowerment and rights
- Women as key actors in resilience to climate change
- Adaptation of communities living in a fragile context

5 STRATEGIC ORIENTATIONS

- Learning, research and innovation
- Advocacy to influence change
- Mobilisation and outreach
- New funding models for development
- Transform into an international, interdependent and inclusive network

EXPECTED RESULTS

- Millions of people actively contribute and benefit from CECI's initiatives, with a majority being women and girls, to build a world of equality, rights and diversity.
- Efficient and inclusive mobilisation of resources, expertise and knowledge enables CECI to increase and deepen its impact and to contribute actively to achieving the Sustainable Development Goals (SDG) of the United Nations.
